- The disciplinary guidelines outlined here are not meant to be all-inclusive or restrictive, but rather to provide students and parents with relative information as to how various disciplinary situations are typically actioned.
- *Lunch Detention issued by a teacher must be accompanied by a phone call home and inform school counselor for PS Log entry.
- ISS = In School Suspension - All student work delivered to the office
- OSS = Out of School Suspension - All student work posted in Google Classroom, student is responsible for all missed work.
- For all offenses at all levels, additional disciplinary action up to and including possible expulsion as indicated by Board policy, may be required depending on the nature, severity or frequency of the offense. Incidents involving police referral may result in arrest.
- Incidents involving damages, theft, cleanup or other services require restitution
- Administrative detentions may occur during or after school. Parents are consulted for any after- school detention issues.
- A student whose discipline record shows habitual and repeated behavior infractions of at least five (5) individual suspension actions or 15 total days of suspension within one year may be brought before the school administration team for review. The team may also consider for review any student who has accumulated eight suspension actions or a total of 24 days of suspension within a two-year span.
- Expulsion - Any student whose conduct on school grounds or at a school sponsored activity violates a publicized policy of the Board, or seriously disrupts the educational process or endangers persons or property may be expelled. Expulsion proceedings are required (Conn. Gen. State Statutes, Sec. 10-233d) when there is reason to believe that a pupil 1) possessed or used a firearm, deadly weapon, dangerous instrument or martial arts weapon on school grounds or at a school-sponsored activity; 2) off school grounds possessed a firearm or used or possessed a firearm, instrument or weapon in the commission of a crime; or 3) on or off school grounds offered for sale or distribution of a controlled substance. Any such exclusion shall take place in accordance with sections 10-233a to 10-233h of the Conn. Gen. State Statutes. Cases of possession of controlled substances shall be brought to the Superintendent for consideration of additional action including the initiation of expulsion proceedings. The Superintendent may also recommend expulsion proceedings for other serious violations of school policy or for any student referred by the principal through the Disciplinary Review process.
